- Psalm 128
- 1 Thessalonians 5:16
- Matthew 25:14-30

Discuss: In this Gospel, Jesus tells us that He has entrusted us with talents that He wants us to use to do good in our world. Talents are those things that make you feel energized, joyful, and that come easy to you. What are the God-given talents that you have? Describe how you use them for the good of others?

Tip of the Week

“Well done, my good and faithful servant. Since you have been faithful in small matters, I will give you great responsibility.” Mt 25:21

Don’t leave God’s gifts on the shelf unopened. The reward is great--the building up of the Kingdom of God. Discover more about your talents here:

- + Stewardship and Young Adults – An invitation to help change the world. Read more about Stewardship here.

God does not usually act alone. He has chosen to enter the world primarily through the cooperation of his sons and daughters. He has trusted us with many talents for the benefit of our neighbor. Your talents have been given to you to give away; your talents, belong to your neighbor, not to you. “If you are gifted, you are called. If you are called, you will be gifted.” says Sherry Anne Weddell. To say “yes” to God’s will, as it is expressed through the talents he gives you, is an act of reverence and worship and one of the primary tasks of a Christian.
